5 MINUTES FROM THE AIRPORT

Santander is the capital city of the province of Cantabria. Located on the northern coast of Spain and surrounded by a natural paradise it offers multiple options not only for football lovers but also for those interested in other sports such as surfing, hiking, cycling, climbing...etc.

The city has a population of about 180,000 inhabitants. In addition to its architectural and landscape beauty, it stands out especially for its ease of getting around and its safety.

Just 10 km away from the city we find the “Seve Ballesteros” International Airport from which we can find national and international flights to interesting destinations such as Madrid, Ibiza, London or Paris.

As you can see our city brings the perfect combination to develop football talent to the fullest in an idyllic, safe and attractive environment.

2. III

REAL RACING CLUB

Real Racing Club is a historic Spanish football club with more than 100 years of history. It is one of the founding clubs of LaLiga in 1928 and has participated for 44 seasons in the First Division of Spanish football, being runner-up once.

FOUNDED
IN 1913

Nº 15 IN HISTORICAL RANKING

KIA NUMAR MOTOR

The club has also participated in international competitions and has played in two Copa del Rey semi-finals. These data shows the relevance of a reference club in Spanish football, being ranked number 15 in the historical LaLiga ranking.

During all these years since its founding there has been a common denominator: the role of players from grassroots football. Our history tells us that whenever there has been a commitment to young players they have far exceeded the expectations created.

Cantabria has always been a great setting for talent. Players like Quique Setién, José Ceballos, Gonzalo Colsa, Pedro Munitis, Iván Marcano, Álvaro González, Sergio Canales or the recently signed by F.C. Barcelona Pablo Torre are some of the players who grew up and were trained in our academy to succeed not only in Racing but in other national and international teams.

3. III

FACILITIES AND EQUIPMENT

Inaugurated on August 20, 1988, it has a capacity of 21,540 spectators.

It has hosted matches not only of Real Racing Club but also of the Spanish National Team.

TECHNOLOGY AT THE SERVICE OF THE PLAYER

Real Racing Club puts the best technology at the player's service in order to design the work plan to follow during their stay in the most individualized way.

The data is saved and analyzed in the club's management software allowing the personal development and performance of the players to be continually evaluated.

RACING EXPERIENCE PROGRAMS

I.P.P

INDIVIDUAL PLAYER PLAN

TRAINING FOCUSED ON THE PLAYER

We welcome players for both long and short-term stays.

The main focus of the program is individual player improvement. Our training methodology establishes a comprehensive approach where we place the player as protagonist of his own learning. We focus on his individual profile establishing concrete objectives at a technical, tactical, physical and psychological level which allows us to develop his talent.

After going through our programs the player will be fully aware of his abilities and will have both enhanced his strengths and analyzed his shortcomings which will generate an improvement in his performance.

RACING ACADEMIES AROUND THE WORLD

Do you want to partner with Racing?

With the opening of the Racing Academies we seek to expand our identity across the world promoting an education not only in sports but also in values, which helps our players to be better people in the future.

We partner with local companies and entities providing our brand and all the knowledge of our different departments to guarantee that our seal of excellence is maintained by the best professionals.

10. IIII

CAMPS & DRAFTS RACING

We develop specific activities in all territories of the world. With the creation and implementation of the Racing Camps we give players the opportunity to practice for a few days under the Real Racing Club methodology.

On the other hand, the Draft programs are focused on helping those academies or entities that are looking for an opportunity in the professional world for their players in scouting and detecting young talent.

11. III

TRAINING COURSES

It's not just football players who can benefit from our programs. With the Real Racing Club training courses we open the door to all coaches, fitness coaches, tactical analysts and other football professionals interested in getting to know the day-to-day life of a professional club from the inside.
